WHAT: The second installment of the SHOWTIME Sports series ALL ACCESS: Mayweather vs. McGregor, will premiere this Friday on SHOWTIME at 10 p.m. ET/PT.

Fresh off of their explosive press tour and with just one month until the fight, Floyd “Money” Mayweather and “The Notorious” Conor McGregor undergo unique preparation for their unprecedented matchup.

Nearly two years removed from the ring, Mayweather’s reputation as the biggest draw in boxing hasn’t diminished in the least. He exudes his signature flair even as his roles as a father and businessman have expanded.

All business, albeit in a different manor than Mayweather, Vegas’s newest resident McGregor hones his boxing skills in the new UFC Performance Institute. McGregor carefully modifies his training camp, bringing in greats such as legendary boxing referee Joe Cortez and two-time world champion Paulie Malignaggi to help him prepare.

The four-part Emmy Award-winning series immerses fans in the lives and training camps of two polarizing champions, following their preparation for a fight that has captured the world’s attention. The SHOWTIME Sports original franchise takes viewers behind the scenes of boxing’s biggest events and surrounds the world’s most compelling fighters with intimate access and signature storytelling.
